

Do not give the banks anymore power than they have. They an live with what they have. I can see them turning around and giving away personal information to their subsidiaries. I ask that nothing be changed. Let the States handle their own enforcements.